“Clarify your life by clarifying how you relate to money”

The first Money Seminar in Romania for entrepreneurs, notaries, lawyers and business men and women

Does one or several of the following themes generate emotions in you?

Receiving or giving money | Issuing or paying bills | Heritage related questions | Fixing your employee's salary | Negotiating your own salary | Dealing with your bank | Making debts or reimbursing loans | Paying taxes and V.A.T. | Fixing the right price for your services | The role of money in a divorce | Jealousies around money in your family | The role of money in your couple

If so, this seminar could be of interest for you. In my coaching and consultancy work, money issues are very present, sometimes visibly, sometimes latently. When having a closer look at how we relate to money and what are our beliefs, desires and fears in this regard, we can clarify areas in our life that go way beyond the topic of money. What motivates me to give this seminar is the deep wish to share the benefits of the efficient and passionate tools developed by Peter Koenig in this regard.

During the two-day seminar, the following key areas will be covered:

- The origin of money work: a brief introduction to the work of Peter Koenig
- Identification of possible unconscious fears, desires or limiting beliefs regarding money
- Identify where your beliefs regarding money stem from, using « reclamation work »
- What role does money play in your life? Have a closer look at your personal money biography?
- An interactive and playful money game
- The three different types of attitudes towards money
- Why and how can this be beneficial for your current business and/or personal life?
- Making sense of it all: presentation of the so-called « normal regime » and the « natural regime »
- Steps to take for a sustainable change

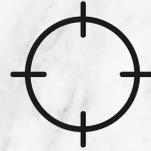

Participating in this seminar will enable you to clarify your relationship to money in a conscious way, as well as:

Understand where your current relationship to money stems from and what are your unconscious projections and limiting beliefs

Get acquainted with Reclamation work, a simple, powerful and catalysing tool to tackle your projections that allows you to explore systematically your inner polarities

See how this relationship influences your personal and professional life choices, family and partnerships

Gradually allow you to make more conscious choices in many domains of your life

Start to recognize what do we do with money and what does money do with us
